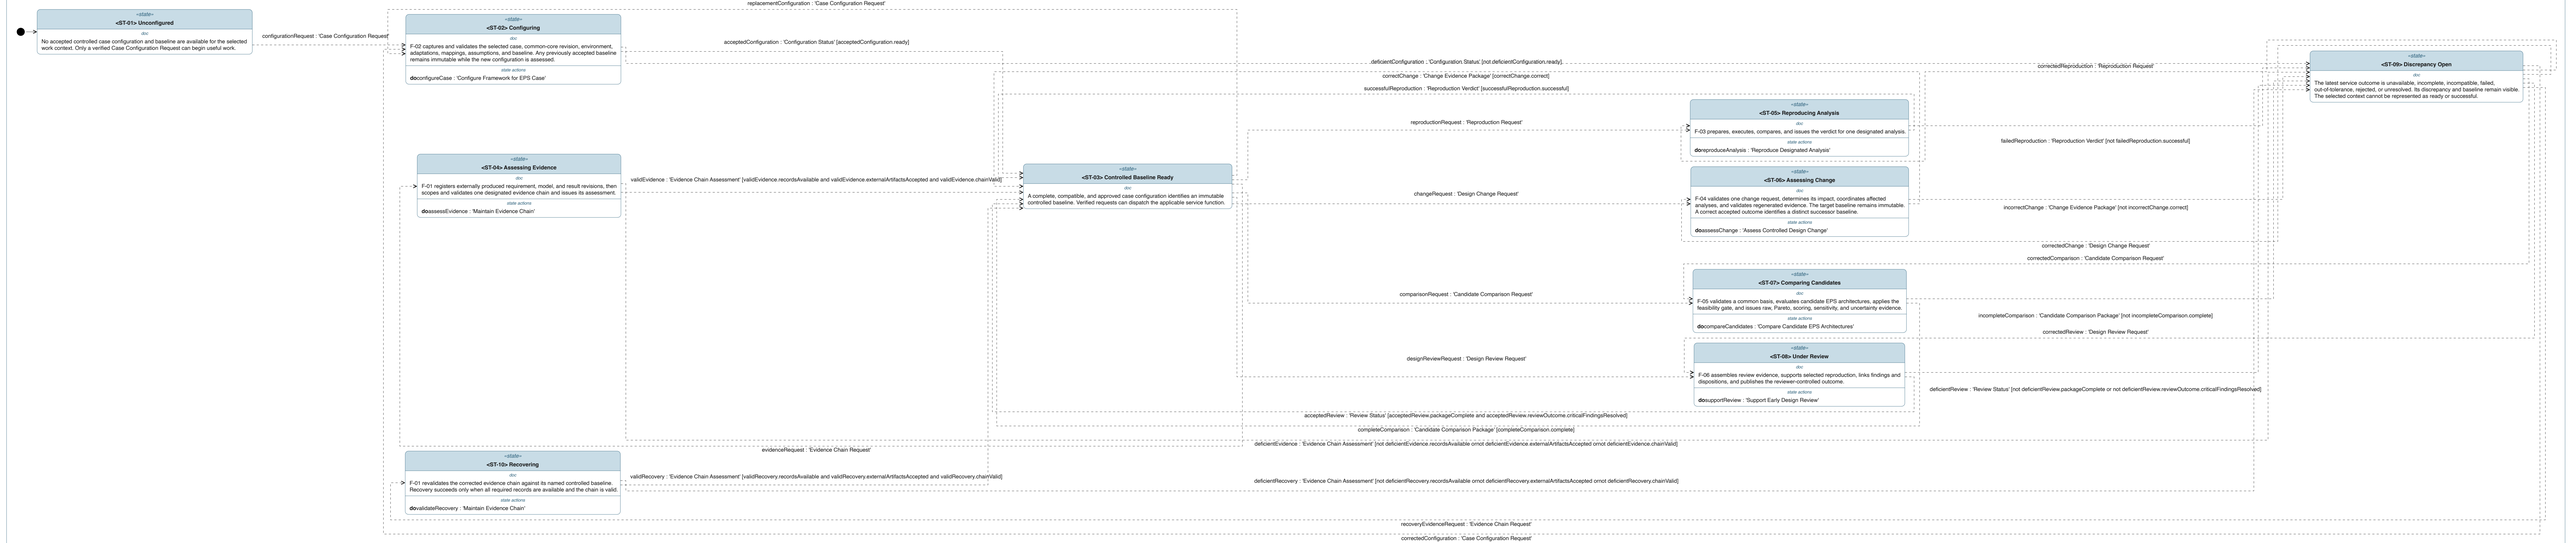
«state def»
«SM-01» Framework Operational Control

doc


The framework establishes a controlled case baseline before accepting evidence, reproduction, change, comparison, or review work for that context. Each active service state invokes the corresponding black-box function. Evidence work registers designated external artifact revisions before chain validation. A successful typed outcome returns the context to Controlled Baseline Ready. Every rejected, deficient, failed, incompatible, or unresolved outcome enters Discrepancy Open. Recovery requires controlled revalidation.